Home Fellowship Questions

1. This weekend we focused on a few years of Paul's life where he was under attack, detained and facing trial. Take a look at your notes from the sermon and see if there is a point or principle that you could apply to your life. What could it look like for you to do so?

2. Acts 25:18-19 highlights Paul's big problem with the Jewish leaders who focused on "a dead man named Jesus who Paul claimed was alive." Paul knew that the resurrection of Jesus was foundational for our faith when he wrote, "And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins." (1 Corinthians 15:17) Two thousand years later some people still debate the evidence for and significance of the resurrection. How could the following verses help you better understand the resurrection or be able to explain it to others?

Matthew 27:62 – 28:15

1 Corinthians 15:1-34

1 Peter 1:3-5

We have a great hope because of the resurrection and our faith is not futile. What difference does the reality of the resurrection make in your life?

3. You don't have to attend Shale Harbor very long before you will hear that God is in the business of changing our lives from the inside out. Acts 2:1-21 gives us a picture of how that inside-out change starts. Jesus then explains it further in John 14:15-31. After reading those passages, spend a little time talking to God about His plans for you.

Is there any area of your life where you'd like to experience more of the Holy Spirit's power or be more aware of how He's guiding you?
